Dear colleague,

You are being invited to take part in the above research study as an independent rater. This letter provides you with information about the study and your role. Please read it carefully before deciding whether to participate.

Purpose of the Study

This study aims to evaluate the effectiveness of a classroom correction model, the Integrated Correction Model (ICM), in students' essay-writing performance. It involves a quasi-experimental design with experimental and control groups.

Your Role as Rater

As a trained EFL rater, you will be asked to:

- Score all pre-test and post-test essays (136 essays: 68 pre-test and 68 post-test) using the Overall Essay Scoring Rubric.
- Identify and categorize writing errors using the Error-Analysis Grid.
- Remain blind to group assignment (experimental vs. control) and time of testing (pre-test vs. post-test). All essays will be coded with anonymous identifiers.

Voluntary Participation and Withdrawal

Your participation is entirely voluntary. You may decline to participate or withdraw at any time without providing a reason and without any negative consequences.

Contact Information

If you have any questions about this study or your role, please contact the principal investigators at the researcher's email addresses or phone numbers: 0673753333 / 0657057150.

Consent Statement
